April Events

'Like a big brother':
Inspiring new direction

In April, we held an online event specifically designed to put the spotlight on Autism Awareness & Acceptance.

Autistic Angels - Isaac Lappin

Isaac spoke about how physical movement promotes independence for individuals on the Autism Spectrum. We had one of the highest turn outs for events - so thank you to everyone for registering your interest! Be sure to check out Autistic Angels website, here.

Helpful Resources on Autism

As the month of April was all about Autism Awareness, check out these free online tutorials that cover a wide variety of topics and situations pertaining to Autism education - click here to view.

Additionally, for further assistance, feel free to reach out and connect with the following organisations:

SYNAPSE

AUSTRALIA'S BRAIN INJURY ORGANISATION

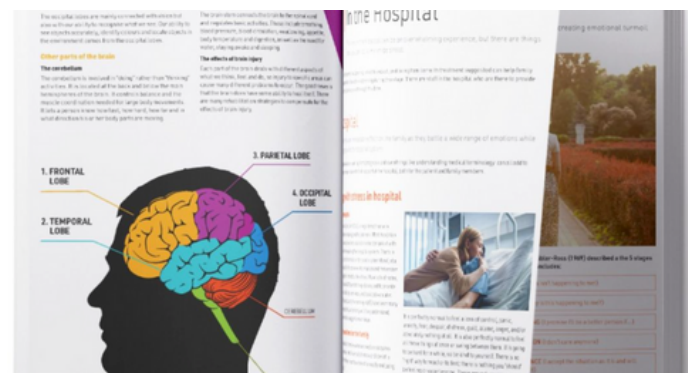

Do you know, love or support someone who lives with ABI? If so, come along to this informative info session presented by Synapse.

The Sapphire Family welcome Synapse (Australia's Brain Injury Organisation) who will be delivering lots of value add content around understanding ABI (a general overview), common causes and effects and how to best support someone who has a brain injury through their service offerings.

The session will run for 20 minutes followed by Q&A opportunities at the end. Tea and coffee will be provided.

This is a free event - and open to support co-ordinators, allied health professionals, support workers, families and individuals.

Due to limited seating, please register your interest here to reserve your spot. We look forward to seeing you there for a fun, informative and collaborative morning!
